

News Release
September 29, 2009
Sheriff Bill Blanton

Officers with the Cherokee County Sheriff's and S.C. Dept of Probation Officers began arresting suspects at 7:00 am this date in "Operation Revolving Door". Over 70 people have been charged with selling illegal drugs to undercover operatives with the sheriff's office. Over 200 warrants have been signed by narcotics officers resulting in this round up today.

At 12:00 today, over 37 suspects were brought to an undisclosed location where they were book, processed and bond set by a magistrate before being taken to the detention center.

Officers will continue throughout the day and week to arrest the other suspects on drug distribution charges.

Several of the suspects were out on bond for drug charges, on probation for selling drugs, and over 30 suspects have more than three prior drug convictions giving the name "Operation Revolving Door".
